DOUBLE EXPOSURE: IDENTICAL TWINS KYLE & KRIS ROSS FROM HELIX STUDIOS

2012 has already been an exciting year for Helix Studios (cybersocket.com/link/fsqth), but the San Diego-based company has a lot more in store for fans this year. When Helix signed identical twins Kyle and Kris Ross as exclusives at the end of 2011, it was a big coup – and that wise move has already begun to bear fruit. Barely 18, Kyle and Kris Ross are clearly headed for twink stardom.

Kyle Ross (who is gay) made his porn debut in Cheating BFs. He played opposite Breck Chambers, who was actually Kyle's boyfriend at the time. As a result, the chemistry between them was incredible. The two have since broken up, but they remain on good terms. Since Kyle's first scene was with his boyfriend, it made his debut performance a lot less intimidating. Unfortunately, his twin brother Kris didn't have that luxury (since he's actually straight.) For his debut scene, Kris was slated to do a solo, but he wasn't sure he could go through with it. To make things easier, Helix handed Kris a Fleshlight (which he had never tried before), handed Kyle the camera, and then left the two of them alone. The result was an incredibly hot and intimate scene that had Kyle watching his brother jerk off as he filmed the action POV-style and coached his brother on how to use the Fleshlight.

If you're hungry for more scenes with Kyle, you can also catch him in Part Two of Twink Vacation: Palm Springs, a new series from Helix that features some amazing outdoor scenes.

When Helix found out that we were going gaga over their hot new identical twin exclusives, they arranged for us to sit down with Kyle Ross so that we could ask him about working for Helix, making porn with his brother, hosting his own Podcast, and lots more.

How did you get started in the adult industry?

I started watching porn at a young age (8 or 9!) and I've wanted to do it ever since. After I turned 18 and got my braces off, I just applied online at the Helix website – and they called me two hours later! We set up a shoot and the rest is history. I love the crew at Helix and it's been a great experience right from the start.

What was it like playing cameraman for your brother Kris?

It was fun! Kris ended up putting on quite a show. Having me behind the camera was totally unexpected and it only happened because Kris was feeling camera shy. We ended up getting some really cool shots and I'm sure the fans will love it!

How did Kris feel about his first experience performing?

Kris was camera shy at first, but once we were alone in the room he relaxed. After filming that solo, he felt a lot more comfortable being in front of the camera. Kris completely supports my decision to do porn work and he often tells me that he wishes he was gay so that he could do more filming with Helix! We both had a great time working together in San Diego.
